

Philosophy Lectures

Winter 2013

Epistemology | Philosophy of Science | Social Ontology

October 3rd: Claudine Tiercelin (Paris)
Some Reflections about the Concept of Metaphysical 'Knowledge'

October 17th: Léna Soler (Nancy)
Could the Contents of our Science have been Different?
Remarks on the Issue of Contingency versus Inevitability in the Philosophy of Science

October 31st: Olivier Morin (Budapest)
What would Social Life Look like without Commitment, without Shared Rules, and without a Distinct Ontology?

November 7th: Ilkka Niiniluoto (Helsinki)
Eino Kaila and the Vienna Circle

(21st Vienna Circle Lecture).
Location: Senatssitzungssaal in the main building of the University, Universitätsring 1.
Opening Lecture of the conference
Logical Empiricism and Pragmatism:
http://www.univie.ac.at/ivc/LE_Pragmatism.pdf

November 14th: Sami Pihlström (Helsinki)
Naturalizing the Transcendental Self?

November 21st: Stanley Paulson (St. Louis)
Das Ende der reinen Rechtslehre:
Zum Umbruch im Werk Hans Kelsens

November 28th: Arthur Ripstein (Toronto)
Not on the Merits:
Kant and the Law of War

Joint Lecture with the conference
Freedom and Coercion.
Kant's Legal and Political Philosophy,
Vienna, Nov. 28–30, 2013,
organized by the ERC-Project "Distortions of Normativity", program: <http://distortions.univie.ac.at/>

December 5th: Simon Schaffer (Cambridge)
Finitism and Orientalist Natural History

December 12th: Stephen Butterfill (Warwick)
Collective Intentionality and Social Intelligence

January 16th: Mark Sprevak (Edinburgh)
Predictive Coding

January 23rd: Cristina Becchio (Turin)
Intention in Action

January 30th: Eerik Lagerspetz (Turku)
What is the Philosophical Significance of the Social Choice Impossibility Results?

Thursdays, from 5:15 pm, 2i, NIG. – All talks are open to all.

For additional information visit: philosophie.univie.ac.at/wissenschaftstheorie