

Groups, Norms, and Practices Intentionalists vs. Inferentialists

International Workshop November 3–4, 2017

All talks take place at Neues Institutsgebäude (NIG),
3rd floor, lecture room 3D,
Universitätsstraße 7, 1010 Vienna

Friday, 3 November

- 10.00 – 11.15 Christopher Gauker (Salzburg):
Belief-Attribution as Indirect Communication
- 11.20 – 12.35 Preston Stovall (Hradec Králové):
An Expressivist Theory of Collective Intentionality
- 12.35 – 14.00 Lunch
- 14.00 – 15.15 Michael Schmitz (Vienna):
Consciousness, Content, and Collective Rules
- 15.15 – 15.45 Coffee
- 15.45 – 17.00 Ladislav Koreň (Hradec Králové):
Shared Intentionality and Practices:
An Inferentialist-friendly Reconstruction

Saturday, 4 November

- 09.30 – 10.45 Glenda Satne (UAH & Wollongong):
Joint Practical Reasoning and Structures of Shared Activity
- 10.50 – 12.05 Jaroslav Peregrin (Hradec Králové):
Normative Mindshaping and the Normative Niche
- 12.05 – 13.30 Lunch
- 13.30 – 14.45 Leo Townsend (Vienna):
Collective Epistemic Commitment
- 14.45 – 15.15 Coffee
- 15.15 – 16.30 Mark Risjord (Emory & Hradec Králové):
Improvised Joint Performance
- 16.35 – 17.50 Hans Bernhard Schmid (Vienna):
Counting on Others and Keeping Score: Normativity in Joint Action

Organised by Leo Townsend, Hans Bernhard Schmid and Michael Schmitz
as part of the FWF project 'Inferentialism and Collective intentionality' (I 3068)
Department of Philosophy, University of Vienna

Participation is free of charge.
For further information contact leo.townsend@univie.ac.at